

Tournament Types and Commitment Overview

Participation Time Commitment

- Full participation: Competitors and at least one parent or DA per family is required to be present and fully involved for the entire duration of the tournament.
- Days: Qualifying tournaments are two (2) or three (3) days long; some are longer.
- Hours: In-person tournament days generally start at 7:15am and may end as late as 9:30pm. Participants have short breaks during the day, but the times are not entirely predictable. Competition rounds can sometimes be delayed by 15-45 minutes and sometimes even longer, so participants must be ready to be flexible.
